I appeal to voters rally them behind a common cause with clear message.

Represent people work to allow them a better,healthier life Can I articulate a message in the in the public?

Can I compromise and work across the aisle with members of other party?

Proper understanding of state and local issues.

Am I capable enough to communicate with supporters and opponents?

Is it enough to have relevant experience and a decent track record?

Independent thinker,strong, tolerant, compassionate, courageous.
